Santa Barbara, CA, January 6, 2012– Lobero Ghostlight Society presents Quartetto Gelato, hosted by David and Lyn Anderson, on Saturday, February 11 at 7 p.m. Classical in training – eclectic by design – Quartetto Gelato not only thrills its audiences with its multi-instrument mastery, but also offers the bonus of a brilliant operatic tenor. For over a decade, Quartetto Gelato has enchanted audiences and critics worldwide with their exotic blend of musical virtuosity, and artistic passion. Virtuoso showpieces, romantic tenor arias, gypsy pyro techniques are all part of an evening with Quartetto Gelato, who dwell in the space where music meets theatre and audiences are taken on an unforgettable musical journey. With a globe-trotting performance repertoire bridging classical masterworks, operatic arias, with the sizzling energy of tangos, gypsy and folk songs, the group's theatrical stage presence and relaxed humor establishes an intimate rapport with audiences worldwide. Experience this musical feast of sight and sound, the music of today's "Renaissance Listener."

"If there were ever a group of musicians that could make anyone feel at home with classical music, Quartetto Gelato is it." — Newsday

The Lobero Ghostlight Society carry on the commitment made in 1924 by a core group of donors responsible for rebuilding the Lobero Theatre in order to provide a lasting home for live performance in Santa Barbara. By pledging their time, talent and treasure to keep the light of live performance on in the Lobero, these leaders embrace their vital role in keeping the arts alive and accessible for the community at large.
